

THE CRAIG AND SUSAN THOMAS FOUNDATION
LEADERSHIP AWARD
2011 NOMINATION INSTRUCTIONS

The Craig and Susan Thomas Foundation is accepting nominations for its Leadership Award for 2010 until May 1, 2011. This award will be given to a Wyoming individual who supports, encourages and champions our at-risk youth. Any or all of the following attributes should be considered when submitting a name for consideration:

- Nominee should have had an impact on at-risk children in the personal, educational or employment sector.
- Nominee should have had an impact on at-risk children in community outreach.
- Nominee should have had an impact on at-risk children in health and wellness concerns.

Any person or group may submit a nomination throughout the year by sending this completed nomination form and materials listed below to the Foundation office. Nominees will be honored at a special ceremony during the Wyoming State Fair in Douglas. The nominee chosen as the Craig and Susan Thomas Leadership Award recipient will be asked to supply a photograph and will be publicized by the Foundation.

Materials To Be Submitted With Nomination Form:

- One (1) page summary of the nominee's contributions towards any or all of the above attributes.
- Three (3) character and/or work/community letters of reference with full contact information.
- One (1) page biographical sketch of the nominee.
- Other supportive materials may be included that provide examples or additional information.
- All materials should be legible.

The person(s) submitting the nomination will receive acknowledgment from the Foundation of receipt of their nomination package by e-mail. If notification by regular mail is preferred, please submit a stamped, self-addressed post card with the nomination package.
